“ Bendecida por su presencia, sabiduría por sus cuentos, capturada por su risa, honrada por su amor, privilegiada con su inteligencia, aún en búsqueda de su sentido común, y sincronizada con su terquedad.
Le extraño, pero no hay palabras suficientes para agradecerle por dejarme su tesoro preciso aquí conmigo, mi Mami. Usted vive en ella, and le veo a Usted en ella cada día, hasta en los gestos simples, la paciencia y tranquilidad que tienen. Usted esta haciendo el camino y esperándonos en el cielo, pero este seguro que ella va a continuar su legado aquí en la Tierra.
Con todo el amor que tengo en mi corazón,
Su nieta,
Yovanita

PapiAngel,

No words can express our feelings at this time. They range from smiles of joy coming from beautiful memories to feelings of sadness knowing that we have lost a wonderful soul. Even though you have past this chapter in life, we know that your energy and memories will continue to guide us from heaven above. I am ever so grateful that you had the opportunity to meet my daughters and I go on happy knowing that your soul and energy lives through them.

With all the different memories that come flooding in as I remember them through out my life, the one thing that rings like a church bell through them all is your laugh. I will always remember that distinct laugh that you gave us to hold in our memories for all of our lifetimes. It fills me with a smile and brings tears to my eyes as I type these words.

I just want to simply thank you. You gave me my father. I see so much of you in my dad and I only continue to strive to be the men that you and him are. I know that you will be laughing with us from heaven above and that you will always be with us. We miss you and we love you.

Forever remembered,

Jonathan, Tammy, Amelie, Sophia, Fallon, and Elora

Papi Angel,

My fondest memories of you are visiting you in the summers as a child. No matter how far apart, you always welcomed me with a big hug and joyful smile. You were a hard working and compassionate man and you instilled those values in all of your children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. I know you will be watching over all of your family from Heaven. Rest in peace, Papi Angel. We love you! -Jessica Aillon Esquivel

“ Dad,
You truly are an Angel.
Through your wise, but firm guidance of your children early years and subtle, but wise guidance of your children later years, you have shown me/us the path we must take to join you in the beautiful place you are now.
Your legacy will live on through the memories of the many people you touched and or gave inspiration in your angelic way.
I truly could not ask God for a better father, because you are that better father and through your wise guidance you have given all of us the key to join you in the better place and that is in God's word "to love one another" even through our small & meaningless differences.
Your angelic inspiration has touched even my grand children. In Isaac's innocent sad feelings that papi Angel has gone , his little brother Jacob' gave him an innocent comforting response of not to cry because papi Angel is now in a better place.
Thank you dad, for being truly an Angel of guidance and with the key you have given us, we'll see you in the better place.
Your son

“ Papi Angel,

You are great man, I can not even express how much I love you and what you have given this family. You truly are our patriarch to the Aillon name. Without your actions, decisions and love none of us could experience this amazing world that we are experiencing in our lives. I am going to miss you so much, thank you for everything you have given to our family.

I love you Papi Angle

“ My papi Angel,

I'll never forget the times where you would surprise My primos and I by showing up to pick us up from St Agnes, while Mami Zoilita had an errand to run. The minute we would see your face in the car waiting for us, it was all smiles. He would take us to the corner store by the house on Trumbull, or McDonald's for a Papi Angel favorite, Coffee!! Those car rides with him were such a joy, just watching Papi Angel drive so calmly while he listened to his Pasacalle Music from Ecuador. The thing I will remember most about Papi Angel, and will stick with me forever was his Work Ethic!! He would work from sun up to sun down. If you couldn't find him at home he was definitely at one of his properties working. He strived to always do the best for his family, and I will continue to do the best and share those memories with mine.

“ Mr. Angel Aillon, was a great man. His smile, even in difficult situations, brightened the room. He was a wise and generous person. He will truly be missed.

I pray that his family finds comfort in knowing he touched so many people in a positive way. His legacy shall live on in through his children, whom he loved dearly.

I know I will continue to hear stories of Mr. Aillon and will feel comfort knowing that he was very loved.

I am very sorry for your loss.

“ As a father there is no greater joy than to see your children become good people. You hope to give them the strength and guidance they need to make it in this tough world. Being witness to what Papi Angel along with Mami Zoilita have constructed together simply amazes me. Their children are a reflection of what kind, strong and amazing Parents they were. It is something to truly admire and strive for with our own children and ourselves. He leaves behind a great legacy in them, his grand and great grandchildren.

“Where do I begin...Papi Angel was in my life from my very beginning and many of my motivations to achieve come from his success story, starting from the moment he arrived here in the United States. Papi's determination to establish a strong foundation for Mami and their kids was very evident by the time I had arrived into this world in 1973. His image in my mind at a very young age was that as a provider, jack of all trades, owner and a strong grandpa and vacation specialist!

As I look back to those trips in the van ( Disney World, Washington D.C., New York....) where to make the trip more comfortable Papi would take out the two bench seats inside the van and replaced them with a lay down couch. I can still remember the look on my face when I saw that blue couch in that van and knew it was going to be a really comfortable ride. Papi would also go out of his way to stop only at motels that had a pool for my brother and I, stopping at 4-5 before finding one in the dead of the night. During those trips I never heard him complain and never see Mami and him fight. Life was simple and life was good...I could never thank him enough for all those great memories.

As time went on and I began to understand life more, I watched Papi Angel have many involved conversations with his kids over a cup of coffee and observed that unique way he paused... really long before giving that steady and wise response. I also remember more times than I can count when my brother Juan and I lived with Papi and Mami how many times Mami Zoilita would give him that look and say "No ....." and Papi would always give in with that look of (better to live and fight another day). Papi was always a really hard worker from the time he got up to the time he got home. I almost never seen him sit down and watch a lot of TV and for me that really shaped how I saw being a provider should be. Papi imprinted his hard work ethic into me so much that I've always cherished and have hardly ever complained about going to work knowing that being able to provide for your family is one of the most honorable things you can do. Thank you Papi!

For me now; I ask myself, how will I spend the next 35 years of my life, for that matter? how will we all?...but, if I could be all that was great about Papi Angel for the remainder of my life, I know I could leave this world on my two feet and with my head up knowing I did great things.

I love you Papi Angel and thank you for everything.

Mundito...

“ My Papi Angel, I will remember all the time you made Plan's with me and my brother when we were little. The road trips you and Momizolita took us on. The 4 of us in your van traveling and exploring together, Disneyland. You made sure the motel's we stayed at had a pool. Thank you so much. I love you and you will always be in my heart. Till we meet again. Juan Aillon aka Johnny

“ Even though you hardly knew us, or at all in my case, you welcomed us with open arms into your home. The room I used, could've been your office all along, but you never once made me feel like a guest. Your home became our home without hesitation on your part. My cat, who you'd refer to as "la chiquita", would take the soles of your shoes all the time, but you never complained, only laughed. You exemplified great, effortless attitude and an overall positive nature. Not to mention you pulled off a flat cap like it was nobody's business. I only wish there is an endless supply of them up in heaven.

Thank you for all that you were. Rest in peace.

“ My deepest condolences to The Aillon Family

I have such precious memories of your Dad ( Uncle Carlos) as a young adult and current.We all will miss Him so Much.

Uncle Carlos was such an incredible person. No one can ever replace him.

We reflect the best parts of our parents thanks to the loving way they raised us.

As you know I lost my father at a very young age. Your father was like a second Dad to me and to many of us in every way, as a person his character,firm, kept his word. As a father; grandfather and great grandfather loving, caring, a good example; with his skills, experience, wonderful mentor; to many of us.

I 've always remember the good times and lessons he thought me in life.

I thank God who gave me the opportunity to spend time with Uncle Carlos. I was very fortunate.

Take comfort in your memories as you grieve. My thoughts and prayers are with you. All my love in this hard times.

Myriam C. Calvache Su Sobrina que le quiere y le recordara siempre.

Querido Nano (uncle) Carlos Descanse en paz y brille para usted la luz perpetua, Que Dios le tenga en su Stanta Gloria. Amen.
