I'm very sorry to hear about Adam. Aunt Cledia, I always sat next to her on Holidays... she was so funny. The family are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ When I was growing up we would go to Mt. Olive Ill a lot. Uncle Adam And Aunt Dottie were always there. They were a hoot and were always good to all of us. Lots of crazy times and laughs. Awesome memories. He will be missed!

Oh gosh you just made my day so much brighter. I love seeing all of the fantastic photos!! Made me cry, yet smile even more. Thank you so much for sharing.

My name is Patty McKee! My mom is Eileen Mandarino, she is the daughter of Emily Kuzcek.

Uncle Adam was one of the best! Always doing for others.

I have such incredible memories from my entire childhood and up until last November which was my last visit celebrating his birthday.

A man who took such great care of his wife, his extended family, friends and neighbors.

A man who grew a beautiful garden which he graciously gave more to others than for his own.

A man who loved to share his war experiences!

A man who loved to give you a haircut. He gave me my first one as well as all of my daughters.

A man who looked so much like Santa!

A man who had a whistle that could be heard around the world!

A man who loved flowers and babies!!!

Doesn't that just say volumes about such a beautiful man!

Uncle Adam, I love you & I miss you.

You have me such great memories to carry on from your long and wonderful life!

Test in peace.

Patty

Tnx again for posting all of those pictures!
