“ Mr. Paul is the father of my closest friend Tom. Over the past 40 years Mr. Paul was always a friendly and opinionated guy to listen to. Not a visit would pass without listeningto his explanation to what's wrong with any recent news topic. Although I had not spoken with him recently I,m sure he would have had plenty to say about today,s current events. A fine person,he will be missed. I want to wish the entire Paul family my condolences on the lost of their Dad. Sincerely. Ed and Eileen Czoski and family.

“ I've known Al since I was a kid. He was always so friendly and nice to me & my family. Even when I would ran into now as an adult he was fun to talk with, and was always asking about my family. Sorry to hear about this loss.
