“ I first met Anna only a few years ago at Weight Watchers. How wonderful it was when she spoke. She was a joy to listen to and we all admired her. I last saw her at the grocery store on her Birthday. She told me she was only 29 times 3. We spoke for several minutes. Such a nice lady. Chuck Palka

“ Big things come in small packages. This little dynamo did it all: Always there for everyone, took care of everyone; cooked for everyone, and they'll tell you her cooking's five stars! Volunteered at USO, Mothers Club of St. Adalbert church, made meatloaf for st. Daniel church; traveled to see extended family. She always did and tried her very best. Always and forever in our hearts. Love you, Mom

“ Our mom was an active volunteer for USO's office at Chicago Midway Airport for many years. It was her way of giving back to our U.S. military men and women. She just loved to interact with them and serve them. Her nephew Matthew continues in her footsteps. You are welcome to honor her memory by donating. Either write a check to "USO Midway." Or you can give online at www.usoofillinois.org.
