“ Annie, my pen pal, my confidante, my second Mum, it has taken me till March 2025 to find you are gone. I lost you and my Mum within months.

Thank you for 40 years of reading my letters and never judging, for all the laughter and tears that crossed the miles, for being my very special friend.

I treasure the memories of your Diamond wedding dinner and the people we met there, and the first time we visited when you arranged for transport to bring us from our hotel, drop Bob off with Peter, and yeas to the yarn store. When we came back, you would have thought they had known each other for years.

Sleep well, my friend. Linda xxx
