“ Years ago, I met Toni while we were both working at Walmart. My father had passed away the year that I was hired and Toni was a great encouragement to me. She may have had some hardships along the way, but her honesty, humor and spunk made her one of the easier people to simply talk to without fear of rejection. I was born in Michigan, grew up in South Florida and settled in Huntsville and felt out of place here for quite some time, until my job at WallyWorld (we used to call it!). Toni was doing the very best that she could for her kids and had great challenges. From what I remember, she was also helping out raising grandkids even though she had health issues. I looked up to her and her dedication to her family. I was devastated when I heard what happened and prayed (and will continue to pray) for all her family & friends. May the times remembered be only the happy times and give the rest to God almighty who covers us with a love we can never comprehend fully. Rest in Peace Toni & Kenneth Sr.
