“ Joe and Carol, I'm so sorry to hear of the loss of your Father. I wish I could give you my condolences in person but am unable to do so as I am recuperating from surgery. I'll always remember the good times we had as youngsters visiting at your homes on Laramie and McVicker and the graciousness of both your parents. May they once again share in eternal peace together.

“ Uncle Art and Uncle Bill came to visit to see the WWII Memorial. They were the life of anywhere we went. They went into DC one day on their own and got lost. They just stopped some guy on the street and asked to use their phone to call us. They were in the worst part of the city, but made it to the metro and back to Maryland. Would have loved to have been a fly over head to see them get everyone to smile. We love you. Bud and Susan
