As a young boy, growing up in the same apartment building that my Tia and Tio also lived in, I saw firsthand how a disciplined man devotes his life to the family that means everything to him. Thank you Tio Greek.

“ In my youth I visited the Cerrillos family on Justine street many times. They took my father, Herman Martinez, in when he first came to this country. I remember visiting Goya and Greek and in particular their kids Richard and Rachael. I remember, one time, riding in Greek's car along with Richard. We went to a restaurant. I remember Greek telling me how important it was to pay attention while driving a car. He told me that was why he would never have a radio in his car. Made sense to me. They all showed me extreme kindness and I will always remember that. RIP Greek Bobby Martinez
