“ Barb was such a lovely lady. She was always so nice to the Schuller family. So grateful for knowing all the Lambert family. She and her husband raised a great bunch of caring children. I'm sorry I cannot make to the service but sending hugs and prayers to you all ❤️ love Kathy Comerford (Schuller)

“ As kids we were instinctively raised to call our friends parents Mr and Mrs, or Mom and Dad. Mom Lambert was a natural fit. Even though she had six kids of her own to raise, she always had room in her home and heart for more. I felt blessed to be part of the family. I will never forget the first dinner I had at the Lambert house and watched that family drink a whole gallon of milk in one sitting. It was amazing to me. In my mind they were rich.

As I grew older I quickly realized their real richness was in "family". Their willingness to take in others and treat them like family. This all stems from one person, and that was Mom Lambert. With a heart as big as Texas and a second mom to everyone. I haven't seen her for quite sometime and that always sits heavy on your heart once someone passes but she never was or will be forgotten.

Rest in peace Mom Lambert and enjoy your reunion with those that have gone before you whom you have missed terribly. Somewhere for you to prepare another home for the rest of us to meet again.

“ Had many memories with Mrs Lambert growing up. We invaded the Lambert house daily. The biggest memory for me, was Mrs. Lambert went back to school to become a nurse. No small feat since she had at least 11 of us running around there daily. No computers. The good old fashion way of getting educated. I was in awe of her. Often told her story as an adult. She was amazing, and raised amazing children. Rest in peace Mrs Lambert. You will always be in my thoughts.

“ Aunt Barbara was my favorite aunt. She was all love and spunk, and she taught me so much about love and what it means to be family. Every time I was in Chicago I felt like I was supposed to stay there. She made it home. Aunt Barbara, I will miss you every day. Thanks for making my heart bigger.

“ "Ma" Lambert was my second mom. I loved this woman for the last 66 years of my life. I know we didn't see other a lot or talk, but I always of Barb. She was always there for me as a kid, a teenager, and a young woman. Bard always had advice that I relied on. My heart is broken. I know that she is now with Mickey, her son, and grandson. Thanks "ma" for always loving me. I will miss you dearly. Love Mary Lynn
