“ My memories of Barb are that she was always with Ron. Both were such giving people. They took care of the elderly in the neighborhood. She loved St. James church in Chicago and both she and Ron devoted so much of their time, faith and love there.

Condolences go to Ron--you loved her and took such loving care of her. Also to her brothers and their families.

To Barb: May the Lord bless and keep you, make his face shine upon you and give you peace. Love you dear Lady!
