“ Lisa: Not sure if you will remember me immediately but we worked together at HHS, while you were in college at NIU and you were a Presidential Scholar. I am indeed sorry to learn of your mom's untimely passing. I recall having met her at your college graduation party on Archer, but forgot name of venue. To conclude, I'm still at HHS, but it is much different than when you were there, with finance offices all consolidated in Washington. From when you were there, I think I'm only one still working there with others having retired or passed away. Again, I extend my sympathy to you and your family.
