“ Rest in peace Casey or "Francis" as you go by on occasion. You always put everyone in a good mood. Please watch over Terri and the kids and all of us who will remember you as the funny, quirky and kind-hearted person you were. Your passing is truly a loss to those of us that knew you but I know that all of us will find comfort in knowing you are no longer in pain. Thanks for the laughs and kindness. “ To a step-father who taught me how to burp my ABC's before I was even a teenager, who would come over from a simple call and teach me plumbing on the bathroom sink, give my brother a summer job, always tried his best to watch over all us kids, even at his worst. Even when we did not see eye to eye, I always loved you and respected the man I knew you could be. I will miss your laugh, our summer July trip to Indiana with the legion, and most of all, I will miss the way you still tried to watch out for me. Rest in peace my sweet Dad and may you find happiness with the family who passed before you.
