“ When my cousins and I were kids, Uncle Casey would always bring his movie camera to family get-togethers. At holiday dinners, graduations, first Communion, birthdays, anniversaries, weddings, and picnics, he would be filming away. Many years later, he gifted us each with a vhs tape composite of the highlights of all these events. I converted the vhs tape to a dvd and watch it annually. He was very far-sighted, saving these precious memories for all of us. A very kind and caring man, he knew that we all would appreciate his efforts.

Also, my wife, Pat, was very appreciative of the way Uncle Casey welcomed her into our extended family at their first meeting. She never forgot this.

We will miss him very much!
