

Casimir P. Wojcik

October 4, 1921 - March 28, 2013

Casimir P. Wojcik, veteran of World War II, Army. Beloved husband of the late Clementine Mary Wojcik (nee Fialek). Loving father of Michael Wojcik, Mary Ann (Jim) Licata, and Margaret (Keith) McCleary. Dearest grandfather of Brittany and Brandy. Private Burial.

Tribute Wall

CP

“ I miss you so very much, Daddy!! I will always remember our cooking together, sausage,peppers, and onions, and making pumpkin pie. Remember to have lots of chiffon cake with pineapple filling and whipped cream frosting. The coffee will be freshly roasted and you'll have real cream for your coffee!! You'll be sharing food with Mom, your relatives and friends. I am glad we had the chance to share our food, with you, by your house. Thank You for sharing, for teaching, for caring, joking around, and for helping me and Jim with all kinds of things. Was so very nice of Jim to help you with your wiring troubles when you had them. Thank You for being My Daddy!! Big Hugs, and Lots of Kisses to you and Mom!!! Both of you are in my heart, a place where you'll always be. With Lots of Love, Maryann and Jim

Casimir P. - September 24, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CP

“ Mr.Wojcik sounds like he was dearly loved by all.He will surely be missed. Take comfort in God's promise that soon he will swallow up death forever-Isaiah 25:8.

Casimir P. - September 24, 2015 at 12:00 AM