“ Please accept our deepest sympathies to your family on the passing of Charleen. I remember very many good times that we shared with your family, when we were attending RRBC. We loved Charleen and so did our kids. We will be praying for strength for your whole family during this time. We always remember her beautiful smile. She was a very kind person and we know that she loved her family. Our best to your whole family.

“ chuckie, you will forever be in my heart. Life will not be the same without you in it. I know God has His reasons, and someday we will understand, but like mary said, just hold the door for us. We will all be together again. I love you,my sister, my friend.
