“ Grandma Connie was a wonderful women with the biggest heart you could ever imagine. As a mother-in-law you couldn't ask for any better.

From the moment we met she embraced me as one of her own. Connie made it easy to love her. We always enjoyed playing cards or dice games and especially SCRABBLE! Always ready to help everyone without a question.

I also enjoyed her talents, her paintings, crafts and crocheting just to name a few, were all so beautiful.

I fondly will never forget her squeaky voice when she would get excited,It was so cute.

I will miss her loving kindness and gentle smile.

Rest with the angels gram and may God hold you in his arm to give you peace.

Prayers for the family during this difficult time. May you all remember to keep her memories alive in your hearts.

I will never forget how in a weak voice She said to Connie and I “ I love you both”. At that moment I wished I could hold her hand and give a big hug and say. “I know “

All my love, Lydia
