“ *My family sends our condolences to the entire family. I was always appreciative of all the invites to the family parties. I remember all the good food and conversations I always had with you and the family. A funny memory is always being remembered as “Rick’s brother”. 😭 Rest In Peace..... “ My hero, my teacher, my best friend, my dad. So blessed I am to understand the time I had with you was cherished to the fullest, from just to be able to call you every day for guidance or to hear your voice as we cracked jokes. Our Sunday visits as we broke bread & converse on your childhood, your struggle to give us an opportunity in life which you never had. Your teaching & values will never go forgotten as I continue to strive to be a better me for I reflect you. I will miss the times I shared with you on this earth, you will always live within my memories & my heart, until the day hopefully God will allow me to be by your side once again in paradise. You are no longer suffering my King, may you rest in paradise as your parents & siblings welcome you to your new home. Undying love, Te quiero un Chingo Apa.
