“ Our deepest sympathies to Danny’s family and friends. We only recently met Danny at Uncle John’s. He made quite an impression on us. The first time we met him, we asked if they’d have the Cub’s games on, to which he replied, very seriously, “yes but only on one tv way back in the corner in the back room”. Funny guy. We’d banter back and forth with him about the Sox and Cub’s. One night we went there and he was there off duty with friends. He saw us, and got us drinks and took our orders. I said to him “but you aren’t working”, but he said yes but I saw you guys and wanted to make sure you were taken care of. Most recently, we were in one quiet night, and got to talking with him. He was telling us about working for the railroad. He had goals. I’m so sorry to all who loved him. In our short time knowing him, I can’t even imagine the heart ache you are all feeling. Our hearts hurt for a young man gone way too soon, and those who loved him. Healing prayers to you.
