“ I met Danny through my brother, Tim, when we were in H.S. Like Danny, we are from a large Irish family, so our siblings' friends became our friends. I remember Danny as a great athlete, a lover of sports, and having a terrific sense of humor, which often had us rolling with laughter. His inclusive ways made everyone feel welcome and part of the gang. It came naturally, easily, organically for him. He was also protective. You need not worry about anyone messing with you if Danny was around.

I hadn't seen Danny in many years, but I heard about him periodically through my brother. I know he overcame obstacles, powered through challenges, worked hard as a Fireman, and remained devoted to his friends and beloved family members.

How lucky we all were to have had Danny in our lives. We had a great group of friends in H.S. (and beyond), and Danny is part of some amazing memories. Now, he leaves a beautiful legacy in his children and grandchildren.

Thanks for the laughs and good times over the years. Rest easy, Danny.

*With deepest sympathy to his family,
Kelly O'Kelly*
