“ The poem that best summarizes how I feel about my brother Denny: How Do I Love Thee? (Sonnet 43) by Elizabeth Barrett Browning
How do I love thee? Let me count the ways. I love thee to the depth and breadth and height My soul can reach, when feeling out of sight For the ends of being and ideal grace. I love thee to the level of every day's Most quiet need, by sun and candle-light. I love thee freely, as men strive for right. I love thee purely, as they turn from praise. I love thee with the passion put to use In my old griefs, and with my childhood's faith. I love thee with a love I seemed to lose With my lost saints. I love thee with the breath, Smiles, tears, of all my life; and, if God choose, I shall but love thee better after death.

“Kate, I only met you once when I worked at Costco and it was a pleasure. I am so sorry for your loss. I bet Dean is trying to cover his mouth with Duct tape. I laughed when I heard they called Denny, DUCK TAPE Denny. God bless you and your family.
