“ Mike became an investigator at the company I worked for after his retirement from CPD. We became close as he was always looking out for us youngins. Whenever his number popped up on the caller ID, I knew I was in for at least an hour of stories and jokes which made my day! He brought me in the field to teach me a thing or two about investigations and I'm forever grateful for it. I learned so much about Chicago from him and he was always blunt and kind. Mike will be missed. He sure knew how to brighten your day.

Mike My Man! There is so much I could say about you. You were a man of many words. Words that both encouraged, and directed me on how to navigate through the BS politics of this department. As a young Officer, you were as real and transparent, a cop that I've met on this job. You didn't bite your tongue, and you were a natural comedian in your own Right! Mike, you were indeed The Real Police!!! Rest well my friend, the world has lost a true original!!

“ To the family of Michael Mazur my prayers and condolences go out to you. I had the pleasure of speaking with Michael 3 months ago. He called the job to see how the Bomb and Arson family was doing. I told him there were very few left from the original crew. We talked for over an hour about his family and his health and as always we promised to keep in touch. Michael was all way engaging with his funny stories and jokes. He will be missed. Earnestine Martin
