“ So sorry to hear this, Don was a great guy and great friend. I bowl with Don for a few years and after bowling we always ended in the bar where we had a few beers and a lot of laughs. Always help me out when I went to Wagners. May you rest in Peace Don, but our memories as they say are Priceless!!

“ It only seems like yesterday that we were bouncing around from yard to yard either playing football along with our friend Flinty at Flinstone Stadium or having a whiffle ball game in my yard against our foes my bro Bob and John Espo. Or it may have been a basketball game or ping pong, or ice hockey on the homemade ice rink at your house. And sometimes hanging out in your basement being harassed by your wiener dog. So many good times had and fond memories made while growing up together and remaining friends throughout the years. Unfortunately the circle of life has arrived way to soon. May you RIP "Wuzzy" my friend. May you soon be reunited with family and friends who have also left us.

“ Don was always willing to help customers and employees at Cog Hill. His personable way of dealing with situations did not go unnoticed.

My deepest sympathies on the passing of such a kind and well-loved man. His warmth touched everyone he met, and he will be truly missed.
