

Doris and John Tracy

A Memorial Visitation in honor of John and Doris Tracy will be held on Saturday, August 17, 2024 at Foran Funeral Home from 9 AM until 1 PM with A Service in Celebration of John and Doris' lives held at 12 noon on Saturday. Doris and John were residents of Central Stickney for 55 years. They had moved to the town of Snohomish in Washington State in 2020 to be near their granddaughter and her family. Doris was a devoted member of Our Lady of the Snows parish, and an avid bingo player. Doris passed away in September 10, 2020 after she and John had moved to Washington. John loved the outdoors and loved to walk his dogs through the neighborhood, and while living in Stickney, John was a Boy Scout Leader with Charles J. Sahs School. He also was in the Army Reserves. John passed away June 26, 2024. We will gather together to celebrate and acknowledge their lives and the contributions they made to their community and church. John and Doris' wish was for both of them to be buried at the same time together at Mt. Carmel Cemetery.
