“ I extend my sympathy to the entire Dubiel family on the loss of your mom. Dorothy was blessed to be surrounded by a loving family. I remember spending time at the Dubiel home as a teenager sitting on the front porch with friends or gathering in the basement for parties. Dorothy was always so welcoming to neighborhood kids. As a teen, it was nice to have a safe place to "hang out" with friends. I trust Dorothy has been welcomed into God's arms, just as she welcomed others in her lifetime. Your family is in my prayers as you grieve her loss.

I was honored to care for her for almost 36 years of her earthly journey. Every visit she brightened my day with her presence. Her hugs were strong and heartfelt. I will miss her as well but I am comforted by knowing that she rests in God's eternal care and peace.
