“ My mother, you were so perfect in every way that a mother should be. I yearn to be like you every day. You have blessed my life with your presence for 36 years and that was not enough for me. I will forever mourn you. I'll never forget you. I still need you. I'll miss our conversations the most. I'll miss smelling your hair and bugging you tight. You r irreplaceable my beautiful mother. I LOVE YOU SO MUCH xoxoxo

Dear Bernie, Lisa and Family ...

We are heart-broken by the loss of your wife, your mother, and our dear neighbor of many years. We will always remember her kindness and church vacation trips we went on. Dorothy never hesitated to share a good recipe over the fence in our yards along with Italian ice on a hot day!

We were blessed to see the love she showed and how proud she was of her Granddaughters, Nalani and Gianna. It was a joy to see them out playing in the yard as they got ready for their walks. We will all miss you Dorothy, but in life, we know that our time on earth is temporary, and our true selves will be received in the heavenly Kingdom of our Lord.

May your soul be blessed during this most Holy Week,

As your life on earth will be celebrated.

Love and blessings,
