“ I have known Earl for over 41 years and the first time he met me I weighed 105 pounds and he would call me chubby. My husband, Ken and I have know each other since 1st grade so we know each other a life time of years. Earl was a wonderful father, grandfather and great grandfather to my husband Ken, son Daniel, daughter in law Allyson and grandchildren. We loved going with him to Irish Times in Brookfield and to Mangia, Mangia in Countryside and loved to eat White Castles. The love he had for his family, Buick cars, Las Vegas, the Marines and he how he loved his coffee. We will miss you!

*Love your favorite daughter in law Rita
(note: I am his only daughter in law)*
