“ Where do I begin. I'll always forever remember your kindness, humour and love for your children, Edna. You welcomed me to your home when I and Gail spend some time together and who I will always cherish.. so much more to say in deep gratitude.. Remember playing basketball with little Stevie who has gone on to claim his own part in this life and to your sister, Sandy which I also will carry in gratitude.. I remember her boyfriend who,too, died in Vietnam... All of you here and here in my heart and soul will be cherished..
