It is with the deepest and saddest hearts that we were not able to say goodbye to our Uncle, or spend more time with him in all the years he was alive. The image of Uncle Ed playing the harmonica for us on the way to the bus station after visiting is forever engraved in our memory as listening to an angel play. We look forward to meeting again at the rainbow bridge. For now, know that we adored you and loved you always. Love, Terri Gelfond & Janice Gelfond

“ Edward Morgan was the Post 348 Commander in 1952. Post 348 was named originally the Medill-Tribune and after the Colonel's death in 1955 was renamed the Colonel Robert Rutherford McCormick. Post 348 was merged into Post 556 in 2014. Post 556 is happy to recognize Edward as a fellow comrade and is sad that he has transferred to the Post Everlasting.
