“ *My Heart Felt condolences goes out to all of the Wesolowski family. I just read of your Mom's passing when we arrived back in town. Your Mother was the rock which seemed to really keep your family strong. I always liked to challenge her when we had our short time together. At least now she is with your father-who was such a gracious, kind and compassionate person. May they both continue to be in your hearts and prayers!
May God Bless You All !
Sincerely,

“ Dear Wesolowski Family,

My deepest condolences on the loss of your matriarch. As a child growing up in the neighborhood, I always knew there was an extra set of eyes watching out for everyone. Be it at school,, on the choir at St. Joe's, or anywhere else in town. I'm not even aware if she knew who I was, but I sure knew she was the pretty lady who was Pat's Mom and I could count on her as I could my own mother. She was more than a mother, grandmother, aunt or even wife. She belonged to us all and she will be missed. Rest In Peace, Mrs. Wesolowski.

“ Nancy and Miles (and family)...we love you all and will always be grateful to have had your mumu (my Auntie El) in our lives. She was so loving and thoughtful and I loved being around her, she always brightened the room with her smile and laugh. I will miss her so much. Our love and hugs to you as you remember your mom and celebrate her life. She is a beautiful angel watching over you now and always. Wish we could be there, but know we are there in spirit and praying for you all.... XXOO...Ron, Nancie, Tyler and Ryan.
