“ My Aunt Evie was one of the most loving and caring individuals I have ever known. She was a strong and resilient person, even in the face of great adversity. I always loved seeing her when visiting Chicago on business. Just being in the house and visiting with her brought back so many great memories from my childhood. The look, the smell, the familiarity of the her home, always made me feel comforted, safe, and happy. She would always be sure to make a batch of apricot Kolaczki cookies when I would visit.

I love her deeply and I am relived that she is no longer suffering through the pains of this world. I am happy that she has been reunited with Uncle Leo, Grandma Barbara, my father, and by brother.

I also love my cousins Leo (Butch) and Mike (Mikey), as though they were my brothers. We have so many good memories of Myrtle Beach, Disney, St. Thomas, and Chicago trips. My thoughts and my prayers go out to both of you, along with Shirley.

Please find comfort in each other, and in knowing that Aunt Evie is no longer suffering. Love you guys always - Ken “ Evelyn was a caring mother-in-law. She was always happy to see Leo and I and made me feel welcome and loved. I will miss her.

I have fond memories of our trip together to Germany. She really enjoyed that trip.
