“ Frances Haugh was one of my dedicated patrons at the Bedford Park Public Library. We knew each other very well. She would let us help her with her research for doctors and other types of services she needed. She loved her family and talked about her children and grandchildren very much. She was so proud of them. Unfortunately, I retired, but we still stayed in contact by telephone. We knew her husband as well. Very kind and loving people. She would always talk about how her and Bill met in Michigan. When I retired, we moved to Michigan. We were supposed to visit each other, but it was not meant to be. She lived a good life and leaves a legacy to her children and grandchildren, I will never forget you dear friend. Rest in peace.

Deepest sympathy to the entire family.
