“ I haven't seen Fran in over 40 years, but she is somebody I never forgot. We worked together at Jewel on 63rd & Narragansett when we were teenagers. She had an electric smile that would light up a room and always treated us stock boys nicely. God Bless you Fran and rest in peace. I hope you forgave me for the mouse in the coffee cup prank!

My sincere condolences to Fran's family. I worked with her at Loyola and knew her as a very dedicated, hard working lady. She loved her sons and family more than anything in the world. May her love for those she loved so dearly help you through this difficult time.
