“ I remember, as a kid, when Pancho and Rosaura were "courting", they liked to go to the Cine Tampico on Roosevelt and Ashland. But my mother, being the strict Catholic mother that she was, made them take me along so that I could "keep an eye" on them. Of course little kids like candy, popcorn, and a Coke! So they would give me enough money to keep me busy filling my gut with all the goodies I could find. So much for being a vigilant chaperone! At the end of the movie, we ALL left the show happy!!! ;) ”

*Dear Pa,
I don't know how to let you go, how to say good-bye. My heart is broken beyond words.*

Seeing you drift away these past few months were more than we could bare. We held your hands, caressed your face and showered you with kisses in the hope that you knew you were never, ever alone

We know you are at peace and reunited with those you've held near and dear to your heart.

Thank you for being such a wonderful, caring and loving father.

Until we see each other again, I will carry you in my heart...RIP. Con todo mi amor....tu hija, Blanca
