“ Se han quedado grabado muchos recuerdo en mi corazón.

Me acuerdo cuando llevo a mi tía Gladys por primera vez a la casa cuando eran novios... yo la veía y me dije, mi tío nos trajo a un ángel; tiene un ojo café y el otro gris (tan linda que es mi tía)

Cuando pasaban por la casa en el verano en el ice cream truck y nos traían helados a mi y a mis hermanos (mi tío sabia que el mío era el choco taco)

Cuando hicimos de paje en su boda, y que después de tanto practicar para luego ver el video de la boda y vernos (cuatas) jugando con los cojines caminando hasta el altar.

Lo voy extrañar y me duele mucho su partida. Eso primeros granitos de amor de un tío luchador nunca se olvida. Que dios lo tenga en su santa

“ I still remember the first time I met Javier when I was little. Back then I didn't know he was my cousin, but his personality had a great impact in me. He was always very cheerful and confident! Javier became like a brother to me and most of my best memories were with him. When I was a child, he would help me with my homework and he would give me good advices. He was there in the most important day of my life, my wedding! I remember I told him that his presence meant so much to me and that day he told me “Es un honor Migui, tu sabes que siempre cuentas con mi apollo y el de Gladys!” Those words meant so much to me! This memory I will treasure forever. Javier gracias por todo y por ser parte de nuestra vida! No te digo adiós por que yo se algun dia nos volveremos a ver! - Jose Miguel Tavares

Javier was one of those rare people you meet, he had a way of comforting people with his words and energy. He had a way of connecting people through his compassionate heart. I remember the first time I met my husband's family, Javier was the person my husband spoke highly of, he saw him more than a cousin, for him he was his brother, and he was very excited for me to meet Javier and Gladys. Javier and Gladys made me feel comfortable right away and after meeting them I felt like I was always part of the family. I then understood why he was so loved and still is. I enjoyed when Javier and Gladys would visit my in laws and drink tea with us, he loved to share his stories with us and make people laugh, those little moments I will always cherish. I know these won't be the last memories we will create with him, because he will continue to live on within his loved one's hearts. I am also grateful that my husband and I were able to share our wedding day with Javier, he will always hold a special part in our hearts. - Lisa Lopez

“ Javier Tavares was my father's support beam. At my father's first hesitancy, mi padrino Javier was, in my eyes a welcoming logical, coherent, source of wisdom and emotional support throughout my upbringing. Javier Tavares, with strong hands and his strong family helped steer the path my family with privilege navigates. Aqui y ahora eternamente Padrino Javier.
