Fred, it pains me to know you are gone. You taught me beautiful things happen with just a smile. My world is a greater place because of the knowledge you shared. Rest in Peace. My thoughts and prayers to your beautiful wife whom I never had the pleasure of meeting, yet I know God's comfort is with her as she reminisces in all the beautiful memories you both shared. Ro

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for the passing of Fred. I had the distinct pleasure of working with him and his fellow colleagues in the 10th district. Fred was a great police officer and wonderful guy who would do anything to help anyone who needed a friend. He had an infectious smile that when you met him just made you feel good. Fred will be missed but never forgotten. I know he will looking down from above as a guardian angel who's new assignment will be protecting his loving family and friends. God bless Fred and his family.

“ My deepest sympathies go out to Evelyn on the loss of her dear husband Fred. I will always remember Freddy’s generous spirit. When we were young, Freddy was always ready to help with sharing his musical talent and band to provide a positive outlet for the neighborhood youth. He had a real talent for diffusing potential volatile situations with his genuine humor. That gentle spirit served him well in life. He was a faithful friend throughout the decades. He could always be counted on to lend his emotional support to our families in times of suffering and grief with the passing of loved ones. I will miss him and know he has joined the Communion of Saints who will now be able to help intercede for us in our times of need. Rest in Peace, dear Freddy.

“ We will always remember Fred's laughter smiles always ready for the next party. Growing up next door to our family in Chicago was a special time for my family. One of my favorite memories I will always treasure is when Freddie's band played at my eight grade graduation, and Freddie playing Tighten up. We will miss him. Xoxo Liz Turner

Over the years we as a family had contact with Fred and Evelyn and are blessed for their friendship. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Evelyn and Feeds family. The Turner Family.

“ I can always remember seeing Freddy in the locker room at Work in the morning, no matter if it was raining or snowing or I wasn't really excited about being at work that particular morning but Freddy would always greet me with a big smile, a strong hand shake always followed by his loud greeting, "WHAT'S UP BRO?" I will never forget that. Freddy you will surely be missed. Godspeed my friend! Paul M...
