“ A CELTIC SONG OF FAREWELL

“May choirs of angels lead you into paradise, and may the martyrs come to welcome you, to bring you home into the holy city, so you may dwell in new Jerusalem.

May holy angels be there at your welcoming, with all the saints who go before you there, that you may know the peace and joy of paradise; that you may enter into everlasting rest.”

May God hold you in the palm of his hand until we meet again in his Kingdom where there will be no more pain, no more suffering.

My heart is broken again. I love you so much. Your sister, Kate “ Aunt Geraldine was an angel on earth. She possessed incredible memory for family history and stories she loved to share. God has taken his angel home to be with her family in heaven. May you rest in peace.

One of my favorite poets is Amy McCauley. To me, Amy's poem "Afterglow" reflects her:

Afterglow
I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly
down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave
when life is done.

“ Gram was the best! I was kinda the first honorary grandchild. Waaay back in the mid-late 60s. Uncle Art and Aunt Pat were dating. I was always treated like a Princess. My love to all who loved her. Our heavenly family is growing large. I’m sure they are all glad to be together too. Gram will always be the best singer of “Danny Boy” to me. ❤️ Love always, Neen
