“ I didn't have any brothers or sisters. So you can imagine going to visit the Trocki family on Sunday afternoons. What better place to visit than with a family who had a built in family of five brothers. It was a great time everytime we visited their family. Harry was always smiling. I don't ever remember a time when he wasn't. It was sad to hear of his passing. Save me a spot in heaven with you Pauli and Mickey. God bless you and until we meet again Bobbie (Roberta Gols)

“ *As Harry & Diane drove to our wedding reception, 50 years ago, they stopped to help a stranded motorists and offer him a ride...he ended up being our photographer. If it wasn't for Harry and Diane, we would not any wedding photo's.
We will miss your smile... your music brought us joy.*

“ When I think of Harry I think of one word - family. Harry loved his family immensely. When I married his brother 45 years ago, he warmly welcomed me into the family. It has been a joy to be his sister-in-law ever since. I was always amazed at his passion for music. He touched many people with his talents and left us with many wonderful memories. He will surely be missed.

“ I met Harry in the seventies. Lil Nash and the Ramblers needed a guitar player and vocalist and he filled the bill. In those days we worked together at the Art Institute providing security by day and we were gigging by nite. We were no stranger to 4am gigs yet somehow we managed to be back on duty at the Institute the following day. So many good times over the years.

My condolences to Diane and Ray and the Trocki Family.

Rest in peace my friend. You Rock, Harry !

“ To me he was Uncle Harry and he taught us to squeeze the most out of every day of life. From making castles as little kids to setting off fireworks as bigger kids, we could always count on Uncle Harry to freely give us his time. You taught us to let our imaginations run free. I am forever grateful for you and what you've shared with us. – Aaron Trocki

“ I met Harry almost 50 years ago. This man changed my life as a musician and singer. He was like a big brother teaching me the ropes of this crazy business they call music. After all this time I've had some success with music but I never forget those early days in the small bars and lounges working with Harry till all hours of the night. I'm sure even now Harry is making deals to perform the music he loves. Rest in peace my dear friend. I will miss you.

“ One of my favorite memories of uncle Harry (Uncle Hee-Hee to us little ones) was his gentle nature and sense of humor. He always made us laugh and I don't remember a day when he didn't wear a smile.

My heart aches for the loss of him even though life has brought me miles away. My love and prayers to my family. I'm so sorry I could not be there in person.

“ He ain't heavy he's my brother. Another piece of my heart has been torn out. I will really miss you my brother. We all must remember the good times we had with Harry through the years. He turned out to be the toughest of all the brothers with all the multiple surgeries he had to endure. Elvis has a new lead guitar now. Forever in my heart. John Trocki
