

Helen C. Wilson

January 14, 1912 - December 11, 2012

Helen C. Wilson, 100, of Lewistown, IL, formerly of Blue Island and Alsip, Illinois, passed away on December 11, 2012, one month shy of her 101st birthday. She was born January 14, 1912 in Jackson, Michigan, the daughter of Romeo and Johannah Fredette (nee Weis). She was married to William B. Wilson for 49 years and resided in Blue Island, Illinois for most of her adult life. She later resided in Blue Island, Alsip, and Bradenton, Florida with her dear friend, Everett "Buck" Walker. Buck, Helen, and Buck's grandchildren operated "Buck's Farm Stand" in Blue Island for many years. Helen is survived by one daughter Janice (John) Braun of Lewistown, Illinois, 5 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, brothers Clarence and William Fredette, son David Wilson, and dear friend Everett "Buck" Walker. She was a life-long member of the Evangelical United Church of Christ in Blue Island where she was a devoted church choir member. She was a homemaker for most of her life. Visitation Saturday, December 15, 2012 from 11 am until 12 noon at Foran Funeral Home, 7300 West Archer Avenue (55th Street just west of Harlem), Summit, Illinois. Interment Beverly Cemetery, 12000 South Kedzie Avenue, Blue Island, Illinois.

Tribute Wall

HC

“ Deepest sympathy to the family during your time of loss. Thoughts and prayers for your family. ”

Helen C. - September 24, 2015 at 12:00 AM