“ My sympathy to your family. This is Anne Szudy. Helen and I were very good friends for many years. I have many memories of Helen. We talked on the phone, but found visiting hard after we got older. I will miss her very much. The last time we talked, Helen said she would send me her new address. I wanted to send a birthday card. Love and miss you my dear friend.

“ My heart was saddened when I heard of Auntie Helen's passing. My fondest memories are when I would go roller skating with both her and Uncle Frank. I watched with awe to see her just glide across the rink while dancing. She so thoroughly enjoyed it. Auntie Helen was one classy lady.

May you find peace and comfort to know she's is not in pain any more, and I bet both Auntie Helen and Uncle Frank are both skating in the greatest rink in heaven.

Love,

“ Although I am not able to be there in person, I will be there in heart. I will always remember Aunt Helen's sweet smile, sparkling eyes and cheerful presence. I heard a phrase that touched my heart: "When you lose someone you love, you gain an angel you know." I hope this phrase helps you through this difficult time. We wish you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead, and loving memories to fill your heart.

Love,
