“ I am Cameron Banda one of Imelda's violin students. Imelda Kaminski was a hardworking violin teacher. She took everyone under her wing. She did not turn nobody away from learning the violin. She had students from all ages, class, size, shape, color, and religion. She believed in all her students and gave them confidence in life. Our violin group played at Disneyworld in Orlando, FL in the summer of late June 2001. It was a fun and amazing trip full of rides, foods from all over the world, gifts shops, Animal Kingdom and Epcot Center. It was special to me since I travelled with my parents and grandparents. Ever heard the term every good girl deserves everything? I felt that every good boy deserves everything. Our violin group even travelled to Germany, Austria, Slovakia, Italy, and Vatican City the smallest country in the world headed by the Pope. Each country has a lot of places to see and visit. A person could get lost in each country due to its culture, arts, music, food, historic sites, religious sites, national parks, and etc. In Rome our subway train got delayed and we had to run in the train station to get to our train which we needed to get on since our hotel was in northern Italy. It was like the movie Home Alone 2 Lost in New York with everybody running. Lucky, thanks to our tour guild she begged the train staff to let us on the train. It worked very well. Imelda's husband Norman was a kind and joyful man. It should be noted that he was a WW2 vet. Who served in the Pacific and played music for the troops. When asked about the Japanese after WW2 he said, "There not so bad once you get to know them" He would come with us on our trips too and had a lot of fun too. Sadly in Vienna, Austria one of the violin players had a toy horse. Imelda said, "Her daughter Teresa loved horses but she did pass way years ago." Well I hope Imelda and Norman Kaminski along with their Teresa have a good everlasting life in heaven. I will miss them in life. Thanks Mrs. Imelda Kaminski for teaching me the violin and giving me a chance to travel the world. See you in the next life. Peace From Cameron Banda

“ Imelda was a beautiful person inside and out. I will always remember her coming to see me to get some help with our copier. She was instrumental in helping me prepare our Holy Thursday bus tour by playing her violin along side Al Kruse. That added so much for the 55 riders visiting seven churches. She was such a spiritual person and I know she is entertaining Jesus with her beautiful music!

“ Imelda and I grew up together. Although we were not related, we considered ourselves cousins. I'm sure she is playing her violin, up in heaven with the angels.

I knew Imelda through my sister-in-law. We were junior bridesmaids for my brother's wedding. I always thought she was the sweetest person. I always enjoyed seeing her whenever there was some get-together with my brother and sister-in-law.
