“ Janet was a wonderful cousin and we shared many happy memories together. We had a memorable trip to Las Vegas a few years back. Her love of family was the most important thing to her. Will miss you forever cousin!

“ So sorry to hear of Janet's passing. As cousins it was always a fun time to spend with her. I still remember when she took me to see West Side Story in downtown Chicago. What a great movie. I loved it when she and Auntie Katie (your Grandma) would take me downtown to see the stores at Christmastime. Although we had lost touch over the years, I will always remember what a kind and fun loving person your Mom was. Hugs to all of you.
