“ I am not a friend of Jeanne, but I am. Friend and former colleague of her father. Jeanne and I never meet but from the kind words your father has said about you and your son touched my heart deeply. His clear blue eyes would fill my soul. The last time I saw Him and to be truthful most of the times I have spent talking to him as always been spiritual, peaceful, and memorable. He is a man of faith. He always made us in the front office at NYU SCHACK feel like we belonged. Thank you

“ The Longua family poem since 1942, now for Jeanne's family:

She Speaketh Thus

*Nay, do not weep or grieve for me,
My Own, I shall forever be
Close to you all;
And when you call,
I shall be nearer God to intercede.*

Indeed,

*I can now help you more
Than e'er before.*

*Do not regret my coming home to rest;
He knew what for us was best.
My years on earth were full; the moment came
When Jesus gently, softly called my name.*

*I wish you could have heard His tender voice;
You would no longer weep — you would rejoice
To see your Jeanne in her Lord's embrace;
To see Him look with love into her face.*

He mentioned each of you.

*Do not repine, but say my name in prayer.
I shall be with you always, everywhere.
Be strong! You do not bear your cross alone;
I am among you still, My Own!*

*Sister Mary Richard, SSND
October 29, 1942*

*With love and prayers,
Aunt Ann & Uncle Tom*

“ Years ago, Maureen and Jeanne visited me when I was in Northwestern Hospital. Jeanne saw anxious families in the waiting room who were waiting to hear the results of their loved one's trauma surgeries. So she went home, made a kettle of soup and returned to make their waiting a little bit easier. That's the kind of special woman she was. The world around her will miss her kindness. Love, Mary Kay

“ I am standing upon the seashore. A ship, at my side, spreads her white sails to the moving breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength.

I stand and watch her until, at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then, someone at my side says, "There, she is gone"

Gone where?

Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast, hull and spar as she was when she left my side.

And, she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.

Her diminished size is in me -- not in her.

And, just at the moment when someone says, "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"

And that is dying...

Rest in peace my friend...you will be forever in my heart.

“ In town for my friends Bachelorette party, I asked Jeanne to meet us out at the martini bar, she easily could've blew me off, but of course she came. All my friends loved her, she had that about her, a ray of light she was. So glad she came we had so much fun and laughed and talked all night!

“ I was a "summer" friend in our youth. We were tent mates at Our Lady of Lourdes summer camp. By and large our learned posse considered Jeanne shy. She wasn't shy, just quiet-a listener. She could deliver a zinger as pointed as the loudest among us, yet they were more effective due to her perceived shyness. She had a smile that compelled you to smile in return, and if you were lucky enough to experience a full on Jeanne guffaw, it was something you would remember dearly many years later.

I thank Jeanne for the memories I still hold dear, and to her family I offer my condolences.

“ Jeanne was easily one of the most amazing women I've ever had the privilege to know. In my 5 yrs of regularly going and picking up, she always made my day a little brighter with her great personality, her love for everyone she worked with and the amazing stories along with the wealth of knowledge, not to mention her bright smile. I always enjoyed her homemade treats she'd bring in and that she always went the extra mile for everyone around her. She will be greatly missed and I send my condolences to her family, both at home and at work.

“ I want to express my condolences for Jeanne's passing to her family, especially to her dear sister Maureen and her son Michael whom she was so proud of and was her everything! Heaven has truly gained a special soul today. My condolences to all who were blessed to have Jeanne touch their hearts with her kindness and beauty inside and out. We will all miss her dearly; no doubt about it Jeanne was an amazing woman! I will miss her gift of gab, she always told the best stories and made me laugh to tears. She was a great listener and had a heart of gold. I loved her and will miss her dearly along with so many others who she knew. She was my mentor, my friend, and someone I could look up to as the smart powerhouse woman she was. Thank you Jeanne, it was fabulous working with you, spending time with you and being your friend. Cheers and all my love to you my dear in Heaven. Love Always,
Mercedes
