“ Jerry was my sophomore English high school teacher, director of our summer theatre play "Dirty Work at the Crossroads," and my friend for almost 60 years. He inspired me to pursue acting, which I enjoyed greatly, as well as writing, at which I now make a living. I'll never forget his deep speaking voice (as compared to his much higher singing voice), his ineffable sense of humor, and the kindness and caring he displayed for everyone who crossed his path. Good night, sweet prince. -- Alvernia HS student, class of '67 “ Jerry was a great teacher, and inspired me to become one. Not a day went by in the next 39 years when I didn't use something he taught me in my own classroom. Thanks, Jer.

“ Jerry was a year ahead of me at St. Ignatius. He was always upbeat and a pleasure to be around. He was active in extracurriculars and on the debate teams. We all enjoyed his acerbic wit and positive demeanor. He was a wonderful teacher and a fine man. Frank Parente. Ignatius '61

“ Jerry was my teacher, forensics coach and mentor at St. Ignatius. Set high standards for me and taught me so much. There are some teachers who just pass through your life and there are some whose teaching and example stay with you for your lifetime and Mr. Woynerowski was one of those. I was really happy to see that he stayed in education and that so many of his students felt the same way about him. Flights of angels see thee to thy rest, Jerry. You will never be forgotten.

“ Mr Woynerowski was definitely one of of my favorite educators at Wells; trust me more alum can vouch. His teaching method was attentive, persuasive and energetic. You also never knew if he was having a bad day because he never exposed it. May your family find solidarity knowing you've made an impact in education and generations of students. May you now take your rest Mr. Woynerowski; your legacy has been honored ❤️

“ Mr. Woynerowski was the best teacher I've ever had, he stayed on top of his students he incorporated real world teaching alongside the curriculum the administration put in place. I shared this with him a few years ago I told him he was one of very few teachers that gave a damn about teaching a bunch of inner-city black and brown kids. Thank You Mr. Woyner for a job well done. You'll definitely be missed.

*Our theatre teacher at Ignatius. Hilarious man. Smoked during rehearsals (legal then). Cracked crazy jokes. Came to all our parties.
That would probably never fly today, but we loved it, and him.*
