“ One of my favorite memories was when we were driving to Maryland, I was about 15, and gram let me drive. First highway driving experience and went through a mile long tunnel. Absolutely the longest mile I've ever experienced. Then I was so excited I text my mom saying “I drove 100 on the highway” meaning that I drove 100 miles. But my mom immediately called thinking it was 100 mph. She was brave and unrelenting and always one of my biggest supporters. Forever missed and never forgotten ❤️

“ My mom was a true pioneer, she taught me to always fight for what what right and to speak up what was right. Mom worked outside her home in the era of “homemaker” she made me believe a woman’s place was wherever she wanted it to be. Her and my dad shared a love of adventure and traveled around the world. With 5 kids in tow they embarked on “road trips” around the country, including driving to California, Maine, Wyoming and states in between. Mom joined my dad on his 92nd birthday, theirs was the ultimate story of love, sacrifice and family. Thank you mom for everything.
