“ I shall always remember the first time I ever saw John at St Panteleimon's, standing by the pillar in the choir and singing away. John certainly was a pillar of St P's! Also I shall remember so fondly his stories of Argo back in the day.

“ I am so very sorry we cannot be there. I was not able to visit him before we moved but had looked forward to doing so this summer. I will miss the songs; he knew the words to everything! Know that we pray for him here, where he had many FROC/FOCA friends.
