“ Dearest Tom, (my neighbour of long ago in Ireland) and Agnes, Rosie, Fiona, Tom Jnr. and Brenda and all your extended family. Our thoughts are with you all at this time. We know there are no words we can say to ease your pain. We also know you are such wonderful, kind people, that you do not deserve to have to suffer this awful loss. We so wish we could lift your burden. We pray to God to give you all, the strength to bear your heavy loss and the courage to face the future, and the gift of living life fully again around John's loss, just as he would want you to. Pray to him not for him. He is happy with Prince and Bridget and all his other dear relatives.

*All our love and hugs
