“ *John no words can express my felling I have today. I lost a brother, friend, and mentor. John and I met in 1966 we were four that time. My family's moving truck pulled up in the ally being John's home. I was playing on the moving truck while my parents were moving us into are new home. John was in his back yard playing with a fire truck funny how that worked out. John and I became instant friends. The years past playing fast pitch, street ball, and football at Kennedy HS. Too many Chick stories to talk about from the past fifty five years. Your loss will leave an empty ness in all of us.
Your memories will last forever internaly. God bless your family, and all who had the pleasure to have known you. Peter Panagiotaros.*

“ My Dear Wife Dr. Laura (Strezo) Tomaszek had fun knowing John in grammar school and high school (she referred to him as "chickee" allowing for my poor spelling). I (Tom) was acquainted with John in high school. He was a good guy. We are both sad he is no longer with us.

“ I married into this crazy bunch of friends, some who called themselves the Misfits. There are an overwhelming amount of stories to share but anyone who was his friend share similar, however unique, versions of "Chik".....which all included Laughing Out Loud! I have witnessed the special bond he shared with all his childhood friends from Chicago. Friendships which could not be broken by moving 1,360 miles away or even by his death. Here is to all his friends from the neighborhood who along the way became family. His memory will live on through all their endless LOL stories!
With Love, wife of a Misfit!

“ John Will be missed by his loving family and many many more... Ill miss the the running joke we shared since he was a kid in 1977, how whenever we spoke on the phone he gave me the raspberries and of course I'd repeat what our old friend Blessy would say and we would crack up every time... John, you were such a great friend to my brother and I, thank you for always putting a smile on my face, love you brother!
