“ John and I lived next door to each other at the Oak Park Arms. He was a very kind gentleman and a pleasant man who was always ready to lend a helping hand to others. He helped me out on many occasions when I was ill. He was a terrific dancer, and at the Arms people loved to watch him dance at scheduled events. He had many interests and was enthusiastic about life. I am grateful to have had John as a friend. Surely, he is resting in the Arms of the Good Shepherd. Consolation to John's family and friends.

“ A longtime member of the Thursday pinochle group in Forest Park, I had the privilege of joining these people every 1st and 3rd Thursday of the month. John was always cheerful and made the game such fun for this newcomer. His humor and wit will be missed. God Bless you, John, you will be remembered.
