John was so proud of his family and being from Chicago. I will always remember John for being so genuine. He loved his Blackhawks, White Sox and Webers bakery! “ I'm so sad to hear the news of John's passing. I did not hear about it until a few days ago when it was announced at work. I know a lot of us would have been at his services had we known beforehand. Please know that he was very well liked at work and he made great contributions. He knew his numbers and I could always count on him if I had a question but I also admire that he had a great work/life balance. He definitely lived and enjoyed life and we should all learn from that. I'm so sorry for the family's loss of John. He was a good one and will be missed.

“ John was a very kind, caring, and hard-working individual. I only had the pleasure of working with him for a year, but he was always willing to help and go the extra mile. He would love to share stories about his family, friends, and fishing trips; just to name a few. The news of his passing has saddened me deeply. Thoughts and prayers to all of his friends and family during this most difficult time.

“ Was shocked and saddened to hear of John's sudden passing. I spent the majority of my career at Navistar sitting next to John - first in Warranty, and then Procurement. Ever since I left Navistar, John and I had been overdue to grab a beer and catch up (Coors Light bottles, of course). I spent a couple days reflecting on this news...and the word that kept coming to mind when thinking of John was 'genuine'. John was one of the most genuine human beings I've had the pleasure of knowing. He took his friendships seriously and truly cared about your life both inside and outside of the workplace. I also know John valued family; he often told me stories about his loved ones, including his father's time in the force. His smile and laugh were infectious, his stories animated and entertaining. He had a lust for life... Very sorry for your loss. Your family will be in my thoughts and I mourn with you. John was a wonderful man who left a positive impact on the world.

“ So very shocked and saddened to hear of John’s sudden passing. I had the pleasure of sitting right next to John (at work) and because of proximity had the privilege of getting to know him (snagging his chili recipe) and becoming friends. His laugh was infectious, his smile made his whole face smile and some of his stories made me laugh so hard, I howled 😊. Man raised with deep family values; kind; always willing to help; strong character. He worked hard and thru his stories loved his family even harder. I will miss him. Healing prayers to his entire family ...

“ Johnny,

I miss you so much. My phone has been so quiet, it is very disturbing! I can't accept that there will be no more texts, no more calls and no more crazy random pics and vdeos received from you. The fact that I can no longer offer my "suggestions" to you..lol.. We ALL miss you, EVERY SINGLE ONE OF US misses you. You have such a great group of loyal friends. You stole a piece of everyone's heart with your passing, I don't think anyone will be the same.

All of the grief that everyone is feeling proves how much you meant to everyone and the unique connections you had with each person individually. Be assured that we will do our best to give you the best celebration of your life possible and you will always and forever eternally remain in our memories. Please watch over us all, I will take any "suggestions" you can send my way. I miss you dearly my baby brother.

Love, Julie (aka the brother you never had)

“ As I read all the fb posts, u truly were a gigantic impact to all those who u crossed paths with. This last decade of Getting together or just merely building our families' absent times via social media, I wish we had more memories to make and hold onto. Ur memory will live on in each and everyone on earth. Rest In Heaven, Johnny.
