“ My husband Charles and I (Elsa) Mayton met John through Jim and Sherry Corrado as we worked his favorite Bingo hall where he and the Corrado's were regular"s. He was well liked but more important he was loved by so many. He was know to us as the cookie man always sharing cookies at EVERY Bingo. What a TRUE SWEETHEART! He will be missed by all of Us at St James the Greater in Sauk Village, Illinois. We are comforted in knowing he and Jim Corrado are in heaven playing Bingo and sending us their love and prayers until we can meet with them again. Death may steal our loved ones from us but it will never steal our memories. With our sincere condolences, Elsa & Charles Mayton and the entire Bingo hall players. May his soul and all the souls of the faithfully departed rest in peace.
